Dear Sir:

I have just received your letter of April 2nd. I hope this one reaches you before you leave. You said you were leaving on the 13th, so I guess it will just about make it.

Several of our boys played with you this season in Puerto Rico, and they each asked me to contact you, so as to get you to join The Eagles this year. On the strength of their recommendations, I hope we can come to terms. I do not see why we could not.

I have decided the best thing to do would be to meet you when you arrive in New York. I can understand your desire to go home after such a long absence. Now answer me right away and let me know the date you are leaving, and the name of the boat you leave on, also the port from which you leave. I will be able to find out the place you will dock when you arrive here.

"The Eagles" have gone to camp, they are training at Daytona Beach Fla. Everyone is in camp but Pearson who has not arrived from Puerto Rico yet, and Clarkson who has a little grippe. I expect him to go to camp any day now.

I would offer you a salary in this letter, but I do not think this would be as satisfactory as talking to you in person. I will expect a letter from you in the return mail, with the information about the time and place of your arrival.

Very Truly Yours
